

UK Concessionary Discount Rates

CISI offers a 50% discount for eligible candidates on a low income.

Candidates are eligible for the discounted rate whilst earning an income of £22,200 or lower. The income requirement is calculated at approximately two-thirds of the average UK income and is reviewed on an annual basis.

This discount is available on the following products:

- All CISI Exams and Professional Assessments (Excluding Chartered Bankers Green Finance Certificate)
- All learning materials associated with the above examinations and assessments
- New membership with the CISI

Candidates seeking the reduced rate are required to provide proof of low income with one of the following documents:

- P60 covering the previous tax year
- Recent payslip from your employer dated within the last three months
- Confirmation of registration from a school/college/university as a full-time student
- Letter of confirmation of receipt of Universal Credit from the Department for Work and Pensions
- P45 – Not exceeding three months from the date it was issued
- Letter or termination of employment – not exceeding three months from the date it was issued

Further information:

- The discounted rates are available to candidates residing in the UK only
- The discount will not be applied until suitable evidence has been provided
- The discount rate cannot be added retrospectively
- Proof will be retained by the CISI and will remain valid for 12 months from the date of issue on the document. Student registration will be retained as valid proof until the end of the academic year.
