

The Diploma in Corporate Finance

What is the Diploma in Corporate Finance?

The Diploma in Corporate Finance will equip you with advanced corporate finance knowledge, skills and expertise. The syllabus has been developed by corporate financiers and offers a practically grounded, transaction-oriented programme that will give you a strong working knowledge of corporate finance – from the Listing Rules and the Code, through to how to structure a private equity deal, or finance a large capital project.

This Diploma will enable you to execute a broader range of corporate finance work more efficiently and at a lower risk to your organisation. The qualification is awarded jointly by the CISI and ICAEW and successful completion of the Diploma may lead to full CISI Chartered Member status and the ICAEW Corporate Finance designatory letters.

Who should study for the Diploma in Corporate Finance?

Suitable for corporate finance staff seeking an advanced level qualification. It is particularly appropriate for holders of the CISI Certificate in Corporate Finance or ICAEW ACA qualification. For details about alternative entry requirements please visit cisi.org/dipcf

Studying for the Diploma in Corporate Finance

On average, 200 hours of study is required to complete Paper 1 and 300 hours for Paper 2

You can choose to self-study using CISI learning manuals and sample papers or have formal training with one of our Accredited Training Partners (ATP). To find an ATP near you visit cisi.org/atp

The CISI's learning manual policy requires, where available, the most up to date CISI learning manual to be purchased when booking an exam, including by an ATP on your behalf. This applies to all candidates sitting CISI exams in the UK (includes Northern Ireland, Guernsey, Jersey and Isle of Man). Candidates sitting CISI exams outside of the UK will receive the most up-to-date learning manual for that subject in PDF format and this is included in the international exam price.

Candidates who are not currently CISI members receive one year's free CISI student membership and enjoy access to an extensive range of professional benefits. Visit cisi.org/membership

Assessment

The Diploma consists of two paper-based exams which are sat separately:

Paper 1: Three hour open book examination (short scenario style questions)

Paper 2: Four hour open book examination based on a case study
